Frequently Asked Questions About Your GM Supplier Discount: You Asked. We Answered!

Purchasing/leasing vehicles:

Q. How do I get the GM Supplier Discount?

A. It's simpler than ever. Use your Company Code to visit gmsupplierdiscount.com and request your personal Authorization Number. Take your personal Authorization Number to a participating dealer and receive your vehicle discount.

Q. Is my Company Code the same as my personal Authorization Number?

A. No. Your Company Code is the number you must use to gain access to the gmsupplierdiscount.com web site. You can get it from posters located throughout the company, or ask your human resources representative. Request your personal Authorization Number online and then present it to a participating dealer for discount eligibility.

Q. What is the vehicle discount?

A. The GM Supplier Discount is the special price you pay for a vehicle as an eligible company employee.

Q. Where can I obtain GM supplier discount pricing?

A. To obtain specific vehicle pricing, visit gmsupplierdiscount.com.

1. Go to "Vehicle Shopping" in the top navigation bar.
2. Scroll down to "Build Your Own."
3. Select a vehicle and build it.
4. MSRP and the supplier price will appear on the left.

You can also visit a participating dealer for details about pricing for a particular vehicle. For Saturn and Saab pricing, see your local participating Saturn and Saab Retailers.

Q. Who is eligible?

A. Active hourly and salaried (full- and part-time) employees of eligible GM suppliers and business associates (e.g., select fleet and commercial customers, excluding contract employees). Note: For program qualification, you must be a legal resident of the United States.

Q. How long are these offers available?

A. The vehicle discount is valid for eligible GM vehicles retail-delivered through December 31, 2005.

Q. Which GM vehicles are eligible?

A. All new and unused 2004, 2005 and 2006 GM passenger cars, SUVs, minivans and light-duty trucks, except those listed below. Saab and Saturn vehicles are eligible, although eligibility may change at any time without notice. Chevrolet Cutaway Vans, Kodiak, Malibu Classic and SSR; 2005 Pontiac Grand Am Sedan; Cadillac XLR; GMC Cutaway Vans and TopKick; HUMMER H1; and medium-duty vehicles are not eligible. Some other models may have limited availability. See your participating dealer.

Q. Can I receive this discount from any GM Dealer?

A. This program is available through all participating U.S. GM Dealers; however, it is voluntary. Dealer participation is on a model-by-model basis, so be sure to state your intention to use the GM Supplier Discount. If your dealer elects not to participate, you may visit another GM Dealer.

Q. Can I combine this discount with current incentives?

A. Yes. Visit your dealer for details on current incentives, or view incentives at gmsupplierdiscount.com to see how the values add up.

A. You may purchase/lease up to two eligible new and unused vehicles during the current year. The vehicles must be retail-delivered by December 31, 2005.

Q. Are my family members eligible for the vehicle discount?

A. No. All vehicles must be titled and registered or leased in the approved employee's (not company's) name only. Vehicles may be jointly titled/registered in your spouse's name. Leasing must be through GMAC SmartLease (except for HUMMER H2 and Saab).

Q. How long do I have to keep the vehicle to qualify for the GM Supplier Discount?

A. The vehicle must be retained for a minimum of six months if purchased and 12 months if acquired through a lease.

Q. I recently acquired a new GM vehicle. Can I apply the GM Supplier Discount?

Q. Can I order a vehicle using this program rather than choosing one from inventory?

A. Yes, but you must take retail delivery by December 31, 2005.

Q. How can I find out more about a specific GM model?

A. Questions about vehicle features, pricing, model eligibility, leasing and incentives can be directed to a participating GM Dealer. Also, visit gmbuypower.com.
